May I say something?
May I make a suggestion?
May I propose an idea?
May the force be with you!

The word, “May,” as an auxiliary verb, is most often used in English conversation in an anticipatory manner: to ask permission or to express conditionality or possibility. The month of May at Sinai Temple is full of possibility and anticipation.

By the time many of you read this, we likely will have already held our annual commemoration of Yom HaShoah at 7:30 PM on Sunday, May 1. Each year, we take an evening to reflect on that tragic moment in human history, as we mourn those who were killed and celebrate those who survived, those who resisted, and those who served as protectors and rescuers. This year, Professor Jonathan Druker of Illinois State University is scheduled to offer reflections on what such commemorations will look like once we no longer have the opportunity to hear first-hand testimony from survivors. The thought of such a time may invoke sadness, or fear that the passage of time and the lack of such witnesses may dilute the impact of these important events. And yet, we reflect on the possibilities: generations of young people who have learned about the Holocaust in school, who study Anne Frank and Elie Wiesel and others, and echo the commitment, “Never Again!” Students from Barkstall Elementary, Franklin Middle School, and Next Generation School displayed poetry and essays and artwork at Sinai Temple, and their reflection on this challenging subject may give us hope that they have absorbed the lessons of our tragic history and commit themselves to building a more peaceful world.

On Thursday, May 12, Sinai Temple will play host to the community’s celebration of Yom Ha’Atzma’ut, Israel’s Independence Day. It will be a fun evening, celebrating the 68th birthday of the modern Jewish state. We recall the vision of Theodor Herzl, “Im tirtzu ein zo agada, if you wish it, it is not a dream.” We are grateful for Israel’s continued existence as a Jewish homeland, and we embrace her many possibilities. May she continue to flourish as a democratic nation, and continue to become a place of freedom, opportunity, and peace for all her inhabitants.

On Sunday, May 22, we will hold our Annual Meeting. The congregational budget will be presented, and we will welcome a new slate of trustees and officers. Here again, we will have opportunity to reflect on what may come to be, as we thank those whose board service is ending, and we welcome new individuals who will serve as fiduciaries of this congregation. Our Temple has stood strong for more than 100 years as a Jewish home in East Central Illinois, and we embrace the plans and innovations that may greet us as we look toward a bright future.

On Saturday, May 25, we congratulate the Sussman/Wilcox family as Helen Sussman is called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah, kicking off this year’s round of B’nai Mitzvah celebrations. Each of our students will indubitably shine in his/her own way, and we congratulate them and their families. We are excited to watch our students as they continue to grow, and look forward to celebrating the leaders that they may become in our community and beyond.

These are just a few of the exciting things that may (and will!) happen at Sinai Temple this month. I hope that I may see you at many of these events!

L’Shalom,

Rabbi Alan Cook

Mazel Tov to Sam Klein, son of Rabbi Norman and Andrea Klein, who was accepted to the rabbinical program at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion.

Mazel Tov to Maia Gersten who was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Michigan.

Mazel Tov to Peggy and Michael Grossman who announce with pleasure the birth of their granddaughter, Kennedy (Kenna) Palaby Grossman on March 28, 2016. The proud parents are Aaron and Charnella and thrilled uncle is Daniel Grossman.

Mazel Tov to Larry Adelston entering and completing the Christie Clinic Illinois 5K and half marathon.

Mazel Tov to Rabbi Alan Cook who was a nominee for the Dave Benton Difference Maker award in the 2016 STAR Awards, in recognition of his work on interfaith relations in our community.

Birthday & Anniversary Blessings

If you celebrate a birthday or anniversary in May, please join us at our services on Friday, May 13th, at 7:30 PM. Rabbi Alan will invite all those marking a milestone to join him on the bimah for a special blessing. After the service, we will enjoy treats at the Oneg in your honor! No RSVP is necessary to participate!

SINAI TEMPLE BOARD MEETING, April 2016

There are no new member applications this month.

Financial Report: The preliminary budget was discussed and will be voted on at the May meeting, to go out to the congregation before the Annual meeting.

Upcoming events:

Yom HaShoah Commemoration will be held on Sunday, May 1 at 7:30 PM.

We are the host for the Yom Ha'atz'ma'ut Celebration this year. It is on Thursday, May 12, from 6 - 8 PM.

The Annual Meeting is scheduled for Sunday, May 22.

Office Closed Monday, May 30th in observance of Memorial Day

The board has been busy during March and April, and I see this continuing into May. While we have all had some fun celebrating Purim and the birth of the newest addition to the Cook family; the board has been looking closely at the Temple finances. As the fiscal year draws to a close, I want to remind every one that if you have not already made your pledge to Sinai for 2015-16, please do so as soon as possible. Pledges do not need to be fulfilled until the end of our fiscal year (June 30). We develop each year's budget based on our actual income and expenses for the previous June through March and an estimate of income and expenses for April through June. As you might guess, it can some times be hard to predict what will actually happen in the months leading up to the close of the fiscal year. The board also negotiated and approved new three-year contracts with Rabbi Alan and Rabbi Jody.

Also working behind the scenes has been our development committee. This committee has been advising the board on strategies to move forward for a capital campaign to renovate our sanctuary spaces. Please keep an eye out for more information about ways you can provide ideas, information, and prioritization to the board as we continue to discuss the needs of our physical spaces.

Our nominating committee has also been working hard. I would like to thank Paul Weichsel (chair), Carmen Glezer, Julia Robinson, Amy Wolff, Richard Cooke, Natalie Frankenberg, and Dan Kopolow (who resigned from the committee in order to accept a nomination to the board) who have given of their time to find congregants to fill the slots being vacated this year on the board. The work completed by this committee is among the most important as it determines the make up of the board for years to come.

Lastly, please join us at the Annual Meeting on Sunday, May 22nd for our annual ice cream social, the voting in of new board members, approval of the upcoming budget, some new business, and a general good time.

Thanks,

Gary Bernstein

Please join us on Friday night, May 20th at 7:30 PM for a special camp send-off service in honor of all our students who will be attending overnight camp this summer. The service is designed to help put everyone in the mood for a fantastic summer!

We also want to be in touch with all of our Sinai Temple campers over the summer. Parents, please take a moment to complete this form, so that we may send your camper a special care package while he/she is at camp:

<https://sinaicu.wufoo.com/forms/sinai-temple-camper-contact-form-2016/>

Bulletin Submission: The deadline for the June/July Bulletin is May 15th. All submissions may be edited for length and content. EMAIL submissions to: Kathy Douglas stoffice@sinaitemplecu.org.

The 2015-2016 Religious School year is coming to a close. It has been a year of change and a year of growth for the Sinai Temple Religious School students and for the school itself. Thank you to students, parents, teachers and community members who embarked on the journey. Your input, participation and support is critical as the program is constantly being evaluated and changes are always being considered. My goal is that our students enter the building with smiles on their faces, eager to learn, excited to be with their Jewish friends and ready to share. I want the children who come to school to be mindful and proud of their Jewish heritage. I hope that the teachers, parents and community are proud that this generation demonstrates a strong connection to the past and uses their education to transform their Jewish identity. Each of these goals can only be met with the support of our entire community, so I thank you for the role you have played in Sinai Temple Religious School this year.

For parents of students: Summer vacation is well deserved. Our students were exposed to so much this year. Over the summer, please be sure to find ways to engage them in Jewish practice and learning. Attend services, make Shabbat at home, volunteer in the community, raise money for a charitable organization, encourage your child to study Hebrew, visit someone who isn't feeling well, invite guests to your home. At the beginning of the year, I mentioned that my Jewish license plate would read "Living Judaism". Find ways to live Jewishly even though there are no formal classes for several months and you will be teaching your child that being a Jew is not something that comes with a pause button. Stay in touch and let me know what you are doing to foster Jewish identity in your home over the summer. Keep your eyes open for further communication on this subject!

And finally, I want to recognize our wonderful and committed staff. Thank you to "ha-morim" (the teachers). Iris, Garth, Rebecca, Alice, Becky, Eric, Robby, Elana, Jake, Itamar, Abby, Irene, Mick, Leah, Larry, Leah, Daniel, Maia, Abby, Austin and Shoham—each of you have added something special to our school. Your enthusiasm, creativity, knowledge, positive attitude, love of Judaism and love of children is apparent. Although many people will be moving away from our community, and won't be back to teach, I am so glad that this was our teaching team for 2015-2016. We look forward to a great year next year with some returning teachers, and we look forward to adding new people to our great staff.

Have a wonderful, safe and fun summer!

B'Shalom,
Rabbi Jody

TREE OF LIFE LEAF

Our synagogue is proud to possess the Eitz Chaim, a "Tree of Life". This beautiful sculpture, given to us by the Hymowitz family, is permanently displayed in the Sinai Temple lobby. The branches of the tree contain leaves which can be inscribed to highlight or commemorate such joyous events as births, weddings, anniversaries, B'nai Mitzvah, graduations or simply to honor parents, family or friends. Share your happy occasions by inscribing your family "Simchas" on our synagogue's "Tree of Life". This will be a permanent dedication to the meaningful, and happy events that touch our lives. The price per leaf is $250. For more information, please call the Temple office at (217) 352-8140.
