From the Rabbi's Desk

In 1963, the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion opened its Jerusalem campus. The campus stands just blocks away from the “no-man’s land” that existed until 1967, when Israel reunified Jerusalem following the Six Day War. Prior to 1967, students and faculty members could look out from the upper floors of the campus’ buildings and gaze wistfully at the storied city that is so celebrated in our textual and liturgical traditions.

The fiftieth anniversary of the Six Day War occurs in June, and in remembering the conflict, renewed attention will undoubtedly be drawn to the debate of how Jerusalem should be understood, how it should be governed, and to whom the city “belongs.” It’s not my intent here to get wrapped up into a geopolitical or religious debate; space would not allow for that, anyway. But Jerusalem bears a definite cultural significance to the Jewish people—whether we understand it to be historic or symbolic.

One of the most well known songs about Jerusalem is Naomi Shemer’s masterpiece, “Yerushalayim shel zahav- Jerusalem of Gold.” Originally published just three weeks before the Six Day War, it was a lament about Jerusalem’s beauty being unattainable to most Jews, since the city was then under Jordanian control. Shemer’s lyrics drew upon phrases from the Biblical book of Lamentations, which decries the destruction of the city by the Babylonians. Following the war, she added a more uplifting final verse, celebrating the sounding of the shofar from the Temple mount, which had signified the conclusion of the war.

Another song, “HaKotel- The Wall,” by Yossi Gamzu, also comes from the post-war period and, for me, beautifully illustrates Jerusalem’s centrality (and the significance of the Western Wall) in Jewish religious and cultural thought. Paraphrasing the work of a 1930s rabbi, Tzvi Yehudah Kook (no relation), Gamzu wrote, “There are humans with hearts of stone; there are stones that embody the human heart.” In other words, the stones of the wall resonate far beyond their physical presence; they are more than mere artifacts. They inspire us, we pray, to forge closer connections to God and to one another.

A loose etymology of the word “Yerushalayim,” the Hebrew name for Jerusalem, can be found in the words “yoru shalom—they shall teach peace.” I pray that Jerusalem may continue to stand as a symbol of hope, beauty, and the promise of peace for all peoples. Yehuda Amichai, once called the poet laureate of Israel, wrote a poem called “Tourists.” The second stanza of the poem, written in prose, offers a glimpse of Jerusalem as it can be:

Once I sat on the steps by agate at David's Tower,
I placed my two heavy baskets at my side. A group of tourists
was standing around their guide and I became their target marker. "You see that man with the baskets? Just right of his head there's an arch from the Roman period. Just right of his head." "But he's moving, he's moving!"
I said to myself: redemption will come only if their guide
tells them,
"You see that arch from the Roman period? It's not important: but next to it, left and down a bit, there sits a man who's bought fruit and vegetables for his family."

Let us continue to be inspired by the beauty of Jerusalem to teach peace, to seek peace and pursue it. Let us focus on the people—the myriad people—who love and honor Jerusalem and its importance in the history and culture of three major faiths. This, to me, is an appropriate manner in which to commemorate the Six Day War.

L'Shalom,

Rabbi Alan Cook

Save the date! On the afternoon of Sunday, August 6, Sinai Temple will join with other faith communities from C-U for a “Family Reunion of the Children of Abraham.” The event is scheduled for Crystal Lake Park in Urbana, and will include a cookout, games, and opportunities to engage in interfaith dialogue.

Stay tuned for more details!

שלום!
Shalom!

From the Board

In thinking about what to write for this, my last bulletin article as president, I decided to look back at my first bulletin article. In that article I talked about our exciting future and the positive trajectory that our community is on, and I pledged to do all that I could to continue that work. I have spent some time reflecting on the last two years and I would like to share some of my thoughts.

First, I still believe that we are in exciting times with a positive trajectory. Rabbi Alan and Rabbi Jody have been in the community for almost 4 years now. They have embraced the community and have made Champaign – Urbana their home. Also, during these few years, all of the office staff is new to their positions, and I can't thank them enough for all that they have done.

Second, we have had some tough years. Several members of our community, which many were considered pillars of our community have passed on. More than a few members of our community have moved away for other exciting opportunities. While we miss all of these families and friends, we have embraced new members of the community who have brought new energy and ideas for us to consider.

Financially speaking, our budgets have been improving, and we have become more realistic each year, despite the fact that they are still in deficit. We have continued to cut expenses, while meeting our financial contracts and obligations. I expect this trend to continue with a turning of the deficit corner in the near future.

While some things that I hoped to move forward did not reach their conclusion under my watch, I am glad to have helped to lay the groundwork and trust that future leadership will carry these ideas forward.

I want to end this article by thanking all of you for these past two years. I have learned a lot about Temple life and about many of you. This congregation is special in many ways, and I appreciate your support over the past years. I have also learned more about leading such a diverse and mostly volunteer group. I may look back on these past years and realize things that I should have done differently, but I will not regret having agreed to be president for Sinai Temple. I look forward to continuing to see all of you around Sinai Temple and continuing to celebrate with all of you our heritage, our mitzvahs, and our community.

Gary Bernstein

SINAI TEMPLE MAY 2017 BOARD MEETING

- ☆ The building committee requested $225 in additional funds to be added to the FY18 Building and Grounds budget. These funds would be used to have two dead Ash trees in the front of the building and one dead Ash tree in the back of the building removed over the summer. The motion to increase the budget from $3000 to $3225, to include the removal of all three trees, was approved.
- ☆ Motion to approve the proposed 2017-18 budget, to be presented to the congregation at the Annual Meeting, was approved.
- ☆ A circuit breaker tripped recently and would not reset. Upon further investigation by an electrician it was found that the circuit breaker panel in the front of the building is in bad shape and needs to be replaced. Art made the motion that we spend up to $3000 to replace the circuit breaker panel and also the ballast outside. This would come from the Building Fund. All in favor.

Birthday & Anniversary Blessings

If you celebrate a birthday or anniversary in June or July, please join us at our services on Friday, June 9th and July 21st at 7:30 PM.

Rabbi Alan will invite all those marking a milestone to join him on the bimah for a special blessing. After the service, we will enjoy treats at the Oneg in your honor!
No RSVP is necessary to participate!

Bulletin Submission: The deadline for August Bulletin is July 15th. All submissions may be edited for length and content.
EMAIL submissions to: Kathy Douglas stoffice@sinaitemplecu.org.

SUMMER DOESN'T MEAN WE STOP!

We just had an amazing time at Jews at the Zoo! Over 50 people spent time exploring the animals at Scovill Zoo for a KIDDush Club event.

I am hoping to see students from Sinai Temple Religious School at the L'Dough V'Dough event later this month (see below).

There are several students who will celebrate becoming Bar/Bat Mitzvah—always a joy to watch them read Torah and wish them Mazel Tov!

Finally, mark your calendar for an End of Summer Havdallah event on August 12 and STRS Pancake Breakfast/Registration on August 20!

JUNE 11—L'DOUGH V'DOUGH

Intergenerational Baking Extravaganza!

Have you found a group to bake with for our BAKING EXTRAVAGANZA?

We will kibbitz, nosh and cook together. All baking supplies and recipes will be provided.

If you have a favorite recipe, please submit it to Rabbi Jody by June 5 for review.

We will make a variety of traditional Jewish recipes as well as recipes that will be good for stocking the Sinai Temple freezer. Small groups will work together to bake. Please reach out to temple members from different generations as we emphasize the importance of L'DOR V'DOR. All are welcome—the goal is to have small baking groups that consist of bakers from three different generations.

Cost: $12/person (children 5 and under—free) Cost should not prevent anyone from participating!

Pre-registration is required, space is limited.

Please register by June 5th.

Contact Rabbi Jody or Kathy to register.

You can pay at the door or in advance.

If you need help finding a cooking group, please let Rabbi Jody know.

B'nai Mitzvah

June 17th

Isaac Sosnoff Bar Mitzvah

Isaac Sosnoff will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah on June 17, 2017. He lives in Savoy with his dad and step-mom, Jake and Ruth Sosnoff, and two little brothers, Malachi and Zev; and also in Urbana with his mom and step-dad, Melissa Littlefield and Spencer Schaffner.

He is in the 7th grade at Urbana Middle School. Isaac's favorite subject is science, and particularly enjoys participating in STEM club at school. His favorite sport by far is soccer, trailed by basketball. Isaac has a keen interest in social justice, especially when it concerns children. He is considering a future career in biomedical engineering to impact global change and solve large scale problems.

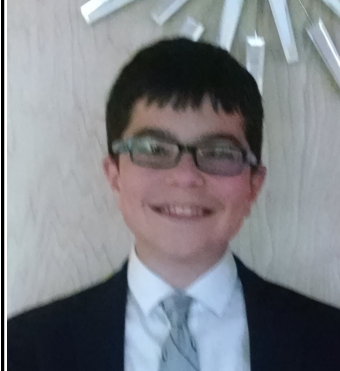

Isaac's Bar Mitzvah project is fundraising for the National Multiple Sclerosis (MS) Society, in an effort to help individuals with the disease, which includes his step-dad and close family friends. His Torah portion will be Numbers 31(13)-20(14), which tells the story of Moses sending his spies into Israel, filtering thru "fake news" and having faith. The congregation is invited to the Saturday morning service. Please come and help us celebrate Isaac's Simcha.

June 24th

Teddy Sammons Bar Mitzvah

Teddy Sammons will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday June 24, 2017.

Teddy has a keen interest in politics and social justice. This has also made him a big fan of Trevor Noah and of John Oliver's show, Last Week Tonight.

He has enjoyed Tae Kwon Do for many years, and has a second degree black belt. He also likes running and he has run in a number of 5k aces. He likes playing computer games, role-playing games like Dungeons and Dragons (especially as Dungeon Master), and board games like Settlers of Catan. In religious school, he particularly enjoyed the elective where he learned cooking.

Teddy appreciates a wide range of academic subjects, but he particularly likes Math; he is a big fan of the web channel Numberphile. He likes solving physical puzzles as well as mental ones, from the classic wooden 3d kind to the 5x5 rubik's cube.

Teddy is also a creative writer; his poem on the Tutsi-Hutu conflict won a prize from the Illinois Holocaust Museum in its Upstanders competition.

Memories are created by sharing special moments with loving family and friends

July 1st

Eve Koslofsky Bat Mitzvah

Eve Clara Koslofsky will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, July 1 at the 10:00 morning service in the Main Sanctuary. We invite the congregation to join Eve and her family for this special simcha on Saturday, July 1, 2017. Eve, who has just completed the seventh grade at Urbana Middle School, is the daughter of Dana Rabin and Craig Koslofsky and the younger sister of Jonah Koslofsky. She enjoys reading, plays soccer year-round, and also plays the alto saxophone.

For her Bat Mitzvah project, Eve is collecting books for the non-profit African Library Project (www.africanlibraryproject.org). This non-profit works with small communities in Africa that need libraries for their villages, but can't afford or access the books they need. She has been partnered with a community library in rural Sierra Leone, and we're looking to collect 1,000 new or used books – but only at the reading levels pre-Kindergarten through 8th grade. As a voracious reader, Eve hopes everyone can have a place to read and learn: she says choosing this mitzvah project was a “no-brainer” once she heard about it. There is a book collection box in the coat room by the front entrance. Please feel free to donate a book or two, new or used.

A special thanks to Rob Ore, Eve's wonderful tutor, and to Sara Harkins, Rabbi Jody, and Rabbi Alan for their help and support.

We celebrate today as traditions of the past are shared for the future

July, 29th

Ilana Cohen Bat Mitzvah

Ilana is a 7th grader at Campus Middle School for Girls in Urbana. She enjoys all her classes but is particularly fond of Math, Physics, Biology, as well as, Quilting and Art. In the Fall, she is looking forward to becoming a Sub-freshman at University Laboratory High School. Ilana has studied piano and ballet since Kindergarten. She is a member of the CU Ballet Junior Company and has participated in performances of the Nutcracker, Cinderella and Sleeping Beauty, as well as several Summer ballet student productions. More recently, Ilana discovered Israeli Folk Dance through classes by Lia and Melanie Dankowicz at Sinai Temple Religious School, and she along with her mom and sister Leyla have become regulars at the monthly dances organized by the CU Israeli Folk dancers.

When Ilana is not busy with school work or studying ballet, piano or Hebrew, she enjoys visiting family in Florida, Washington State, California and Brazil, and spending time at home with her dad, mom, sister and the family's guinea pigs: Poppy, Panda, and Chip (our surprise baby born over Passover).

For her mitzvah project, Ilana is using dance to educate about Jewish culture, build community, and support CU Ballet Tickets for Kids (TFK) program. TFK awards ballet performance tickets to local children identified by their schools for financial need. Since January, Ilana has been assisting her mom in teaching Israeli Folk Dance at her school during PE class. The PE classes have generated so much excitement that, in June and July, they are expanding this program in the form of a series of Israeli Dance workshops open to anyone in our community age 10 years and up. In the Summer, Ilana and her mom will also work with Mitch Harris to teach Klezmer-style dance to a group of CU Ballet dancers. Participants at the dance workshops and guests at her July 29th Bat Mitzvah service will be encouraged to donate to TFK in lieu of workshop registration fees or gifts.

HOLOCAUST MUSEUM DISPLAY

The Sinai Temple Museum proudly presents this year's Holocaust display in the Levin Lounge. It is an exhibit of artwork by Agnes Matjinsky Pal, a renowned metalsmith from Edwardsville, IL, and a Holocaust survivor. Her work explores the relationship of the creative act of artmaking as a vehicle for healing and remembrance. The exhibit runs until the end of June.

Adding memorials to your membership record is simple. Just call the Temple office (or email us at stoffice@sinaitemplecu.org) and let us know the name of the deceased, their relationship to you, and the secular or Hebrew date you wish to observe their yahrzeit. If you are unable to attend services and wish to reschedule the observance, please let us know a few days in advance.
