You won't want to miss our celebration of PURIM this year

on Wednesday, March 20th

The fun begins at 5:30 PM with a festive dinner. Temple will provide "Diane's Famous Fish" as an entrée; the remainder of the meal will be potluck. Please visit <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0F4AAFAE2EA1F58-purim3> to RSVP.

At 6:30 PM, we'll gather in the sanctuary for our fabulous original shpiel: "Esther Poppins!" You are encouraged to bring a box of dried pasta to use as a gragger. All pasta will then be donated to the Eastern Illinois Foodbank. Following the shpiel, we'll adjourn to the Davis Chapel for a reading of the whole Megillah, hosted by the Egalitarian Traditional Minyan.

It's a lively celebration of a fantastically frivolous festival! We look forward to seeing you!

From Rabbi Alan Cook's Desk

I'm often asked—by family members, by colleagues, and even by prospective members: what is great about living in C-U? There are many things to recommend about our community, including great dining, a world-class university turning out great innovations and scholastic achievements, the research park cultivating technologies for the future, fantastic parks and public spaces, and so much more. This fabulous and clever video from You'reWelcomeCU.org highlights many of the great features that our family has come to love about our home in East Central Illinois. You can watch it at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=w8iC5gyhN0k>

And what's great about being Jewish in C-U? Well, we don't have a video to showcase that—yet. But I think that there is much to be said for our Jewish community's diversity and vibrancy, the vitality of local Jewish institutions, the fact that we are home to the very first Hillel in the world, and the fact that Jewish life continues to thrive here more than 100 years after the first Jews set up shop in C-U. Sinai Temple can be proud for continuing to be a fixture at the center of this community. As other communities in the state have unfortunately faltered, Sinai Temple has been fortunate to remain strong. Some of our staying power is attributable to stable employers such as the university and our local hospital systems. But much is thanks to our congregation having embraced the same principles highlighted in the video I mentioned above. We have committed ourselves to being welcoming, and want to continue to make an effort to create a warm and welcoming environment.

A buzzword in the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) in recent years is “audacious hospitality.” This is meant to permeate all congregations and Jewish institutions, and I hope that we embody it at Sinai as well. Whatever one's background, however one finds meaningful engagement with Judaism, there is a home for everyone at Sinai Temple. I have heard the comments from congregants and visitors alike: our diversity is our strength. Whatever has brought you through the door, you're welcome!

Two key occasions when those not affiliated with Sinai get to see us show our “best side” are during funerals and during B'nai Mitzvah. Though emotionally these events exist at opposite ends of the spectrum, they are similar in that our “audacious hospitality” is on display. Whether we share in meals of condolence to console the bereaved family or we come together for worship and shep naches over the accomplishments of our students, family members and out-of-town guests marvel (sometimes wistfully) at how our tight-knit congregation and community rally together to support those who are experiencing these moments. I believe all that happens because Sinai Temple, like the CU community at large, has made the effort to say, “You're Welcome.”

As winter winds down and spring approaches, there are many ways to engage with Sinai Temple. Explore those programs and offerings that most appeal to you and your family. You're welcome!

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Alan Cook

Mazal Tov to Robin & Bruce Goettel on the birth of their granddaughter, Violet Claire Levin, born Feb. 5th. The proud parents are Lauren & Corey Levin.

Mazal Tov to Charles Kozoll, long-time Sinai member and former president of the Temple, has written and published his first novel, Evil and Good in a Campus Town—A Fight to the Finish. Although he has written many scholarly articles and books during his more than 50 years in academia, this is his first venture into fiction.

Believe it or not, we are already fast approaching Purim! Get ready for this most whimsical and light-hearted celebration of the Jewish calendar! Rabbi Alan will be producing the annual Purim Shpiel on Wednesday evening, March 20. There will be a potluck dinner preceding the service/shpiel and a reading of the book of Esther afterwards. Always a good time, and this year a harbinger of spring! Everyone who would like to send a Purim Basket to people in our congregation should respond to Rabbi Jody's mailing of "Shalach Manot" and make a generous contribution, either by mail or online. There are also volunteer opportunities for all ages, assembling and delivering the baskets. Details and reminders will be included in the weekly email blasts. Last year, the Shalach Manot was a terrific fundraiser for the Religious School. Let's see if we can beat last year's record!

Thank you so much to everyone in the community who participated in the "Hands Only CPR" training we did on Sunday February 10. Despite less than ideal weather, there was a great turnout, and everybody learned a lot about how to save the life of someone who has stopped breathing and whose heart has stopped beating.

It was my first time ever having this training, and I'm really glad I did it. I think it will help me if, God forbid, I ever find myself in such a situation, to know what to do, what not to do, and, most importantly, how not to panic. They say this training is something you have to repeat every couple of years, both because your automatic memory of how to respond needs jogging and because there may be further innovations in technology to make the process even simpler. The trainers who came to help us will be happy to return anytime we want them.

The more people who have some familiarity with these techniques the better, not just in Sinai Temple, but in the greater community at large. For those who don't know, we do have an AED (Automatic Emergency Defibrillator) located in the front coat closet of Sinai Temple; the other aspect of CPR involves simply using our hands and arms.

One new innovation we learned about is a free app you can install on your smartphone called "Pulsepoint." The idea is that, when a medical emergency occurs, the typical response time for EMT personnel to arrive on the scene, even in an area like ours where there are many facilities with emergency response teams, is often too long to save a person who has cardiac arrest. The solution is to send out an alert to everyone within a radius of about 0.1 mile in the hopes that someone within that radius with a rudimentary knowledge of CPR can go to the person's aid to provide emergency CPR until the EMT squad arrives. Studies show that the person's chance of survival reduces by 10% for each minute without treatment, so getting there in two minutes makes a huge difference compared to typical EMT response times of over ten minutes.

Sometime this month (date to be announced, so watch your weekly email blasts), there will be a training session, teaching us how to apply tourniquets in case someone has been wounded. This technique, when properly used, significantly increases people's chances of surviving a traumatic injury.

Finally, I want to express Diane's and my heartfelt thanks to everyone in Sinai Temple for your support and kindness during our mourning for the loss of my mother, Alice Ore. We have felt so much love from our Temple community. It really has eased our pain. You are all truly amazing! We are blessed to be part of the Sinai community!

See you in Temple!

SINAI TEMPLE FEBRUARY 2019 BOARD MEETING

- ☆ Sanford Hess, of the Sinai Renovation Committee, provided an update on Temple renovations. In particular, the firm Landau|Zinder will be visiting Temple Sinai March 1-3; they will have the opportunity to see and participate in many important Temple activities, including a First Friday service and dinner as well as an ETM Saturday service. There will also be Congregation meetings with the architects Saturday night, and then the firm will meet with renovation and security committees as well as the Board on Sunday.
- ☆ Jacob Sosnoff, of the Sinai Security Committee, listed recent security updates, including trainings (e.g., active shooter, CPR), adding lighting by the main entrance, and updates to the alarm system.
- ☆ The Board approved a new Board member and secretary to serve on the Board—Benjamin Hankin.

PURIM IS COMING!

Purim is a fantastic holiday to celebrate as a family and with the community. We aren't going to let SPRING BREAK disrupt our Purim traditions at Sinai Temple! For those who will be traveling, consider bringing an abridged and child-friendly version of the megillah with you to read. For those who will be in town, participate in several Sinai Temple events to keep you busy during break!

1. Send Purim Basket Greetings to members of the community! This is the BIGGEST fundraiser we do at Sinai Temple and the money raised grows each year. Your contributions allow us to keep tuition costs low, purchase materials for the classes, send kids to retreats and offer local programming. Your participation also gives you an opportunity to do something kind for members of our community. Perhaps send a greeting to someone who you have not seen in a while, a new member or a person who you see volunteering often at Sinai Temple. FIRM DEADLINE IS MARCH 3!
2. Shalach Manot Deliveries—will hopefully be ready to get picked up on Thursday, March 14. Look for more information that will be coming soon, but please sign up for a route or two! Email Rabbi Jody if you want to sign up. If you mention a particular area in town, I will do my best to give you that route. This is an AMAZING way for kids to do a mitzvah and to spend a few minutes visiting with Sinai Temple members.

3. Purim Festivities—We will celebrate Purim with a potluck dinner, costume parade, Purim Spiel and Megillah Reading on Wednesday, March 20! Mark your calendar and put on your costume! Bring a box of macaroni to use as a grogger—we will donate it to the Eastern Illinois Foodbank!
4. Purim Carnival—Celebrate Purim (or for parents, perhaps the celebration is the conclusion of Spring Break) at the Sinai Temple Purim Carnival! This year, we will play carnival games, eat a pizza dinner, win prizes and celebrate the fun of Purim together. Because several teachers will be away for spring break, we will need adult volunteers to help run booths. Please watch for sign up information in the weekly email.

Thanks to all who participated in the Sinai Temple Green Team inaugural event, the Green Oneg on January 18, 2019. Many Sinai Temple members share our passion for promoting sustainability!

Look for the Green Team on March 1 for the First Friday dinner. We'll be using glass and china to reduce usage of disposables, and we'll again share fun eco-facts at the tables. We'll be highlighting World Water Day on March 22. (see www.worldwaterday.org) Get in touch with Green Team chair Alice Berkson at berksonalice@gmail.com to participate in our activities.

GREEN TEAM TIP: To save both time and water usage, use a no-rinse cleaning product like Eucalan for your hand laundry. It can be expensive but a little goes a long way.

Bar/Bat Mitzvah

Max & Sophia Libman

Max and Sophia Libman will be called to the Torah as a B'nai Mitzvah on March 9, 2019. Their parents, Andrew and Lisa, and their sister Hannah, are excited to support them on this special day. Max and Sophia are in 7th grade at Countryside School.

For Sophia's Mitzvah project, Sophia volunteers as a coach with the Special Olympics team at the Champaign Gymnastics Academy. Sophia attends weekly practices and assists the team with training the athletes for their state competition this spring. Sophia also volunteers with Champaign Urbana Special Recreation, an organization that provides programs and services to community members with disabilities. Sophia enjoys helping at park district events for children with special needs, and has been honored to form new friendships that she treasures.

For Max's Mitzvah project, Max wanted to help spread awareness about the horrors of the Holocaust, and to encourage individuals to stand up against hatred. Max created a presentation on the Holocaust and Hatred, including a short film that he wrote, and he is sharing his presentation in the community. Max is presenting at local elementary, middle, and high schools; Sinai's Religious School and churches in the community, including the First Presbyterian Church; and on campus to college students. Max also has reached out to the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh. Max hopes that education and action will help create a better future.

The Libman family looks forward to celebrating with the Sinai Temple community on March 9!

From Generation to Generation
we carry on with the richness of tradition and the promise of tomorrow.

Bat/Bar Mitzvah

Nessa Bleill

Nessa Bleill is a seventh grader at Edison Middle School in Champaign. Nessa is big sister to Neena and Sarah, and daughter of Laura and Tony Bleill.

A member of the Sinai Temple community since she was born, Nessa has grown up attending Shabbat Rocks, Hand-in-Hand, Religious School, Hebrew School, and too many special events to count.

In her spare time, Nessa plays the flute and plays softball. She loves to volunteer, whether at Eastern Illinois Foodbank events or by helping her former first grade teacher in the classroom. She especially loves her dog, Maddie, and hanging out with her friends. She is thankful to all her teachers at Sinai Temple over the years, especially Sara Harkins, and is very grateful for her tutor, Rob Ore.

She looks forward to celebrating her call to the Torah on March 30 with the Sinai Temple community.

Mitchell Barra

Mitchell Scott Barra will be called to the torah as a Bar Mitzvah on the 6th of April, 2019. Mitchell is a 7th grader at Maroa-Forsyth Middle School in Maroa, Illinois. He enjoys various sports such as football, basketball, track and sports even though he doesn't play in a league. He likes to watch Netflix or hang out with friends. One thing he loves to do is to camp with the boy scout troop he is in (Troop 202 out of Decatur Illinois.)

This year the B'nai Mitzvah class has done multiple mitzvah projects individually. Some of the things they have done this year are visiting the sick, helping the community with saving resources, and as a class discussing things that other people have done to help make our world a better place.

UPDATE FROM SINAI RENOVATION COMMITTEE

The Renovation Committee has been working with the Architects to plan a weekend full of events for March 1-3. The architects (Michael Landau and Josh Zinder) like to start their design process by attending services – so they'll be attending the First Friday dinner/service on March 1 and the Egalitarian Traditional Minyan on March 2. Then we have the campaign kick-off on Saturday night. At that event, the architects will make a presentation to talk about their design process, and generally about synagogue design. Finally, there will be meetings on Sunday, March 2, with the Renovation Committee, Safety Committee, and the Board of Trustees. This weekend is only the first step of the design process, which will continue through the Spring. Landau|Zinder will be back other times for additional meetings.
