Dear friends,

You may have noticed that we did not publish our monthly newsletter in December. We are currently undergoing a redesign process to ensure we are communicating Temple news to you in an engaging and informative manner. Starting in 2025, we will publish a print edition of our newsletter four times a year, approximately on a quarterly basis. We will still communicate timely information in our weekly email newsletters.

In the meantime, this abbreviated edition lists recent and upcoming Yahrzeits, and the generous contributions made to Sinai Temple from October 15 to December 15, 2024.

We appreciate your patience as we continue to evolve our communications.

Lil Levant called the meeting to order at 7:00.

- The Board discussed upcoming events, including the Debbie Friedman Experience and Conversations at Sinai.
- The Board approved the minutes of its meeting on October 14 following a motion to approve by Andy Bernstein, seconded by Stacy Trager.
- The Board approved a new member application from Glen and Lisa Schwartzberg.
- Ben LeRoy updated the Board on a project he is leading with Justin, Andy, and Michael regarding a possible code of conduct for Sinai Temple members. They are currently sharpening their committee's charge and reviewing other congregations' policies.
- Gary Bernstein presented the administrator's report, highlighting some information systems updates.
- Sam Bernstein reviewed the temple's operating statement and summary of investment accounts with the Board and reported on our Midland States Bank's representative investment review at the November 4 Finance Committee meeting.
- Art Siegel presented the Financial Secretary's report, highlighting that revenue is approximately $23,000 behind last year-to-date. Fewer than 43% of current member households have either pledged or made a payment of membership dues this fiscal year. Letters are going out to those who have not pledged or paid later in the week.
- Art also reported on the solar energy project and other building matters. Solar installation and related inspections are completed; we are awaiting Ameren hook-up to make the system operational. There will soon be a fire inspection of the building, and there are some malfunctioning emergency lights that are being replaced, along with some tree trimming and possible removal.

Lil adjourned the meeting at 8:34.

- Rabbi Jody provided updates on Religious School activities and the Winter Camp that will again take place over the school break.

- Art also reported on the solar energy project and other building matters, including FEMA grant payments, upcoming fire alarm testing, and arborist work on the property. The solar energy installation is now operational, and the final payment to Route 66 Solar is due. After a motion by Stacy Trager, which was seconded by Andy Bernstein, the Board unanimously approved an allocation from the Building Fund to cover the payment. The Building Fund will be reimbursed when an expected payment from a congregant is made to the project.
